azcentral.

HIGH SCHOOL

Section 7 a huge hit among coaches, as players see recruiting stock rise

Richard Obert Arizona Republic

Published 2:57 p.m. MT Jun. 21, 2021 | Updated 5:45 p.m. MT Jun. 21, 2021

Desert Mountain went 3-1 in the Section 7 with senior guard Easton Reagan averaging 30 points. Photo courtesy of Desert Mountain coach Mark Schumaker. Courtesy Of Mark Schumaker

Scottsdale Desert Mountain 6-foot-4 senior guard Easton Reagan might have been the breakout player of the showcase for Arizona, averaging 30 points with his team going 3-1, the only loss coming against Los Angeles Cathedral Catholic by four points. Reagan was most impressive in that loss, because he scored 33 points against top-100 2023 player in the nation Darius Carr.

"Every Pac-12 coach was there to watch (Carr) and Easton dropped 33 on him," coach Mark Schumaker said in a text.

Reagan had 30 points against Mesa, and 28 against Chandler Basha, both wins.

Read full article: https://www.azcentral.com/story/sports/high-school/2021/06/21/section-7-huge-hit-among-coaches-players-see-recruiting-stock-rise/7776278002/